TWO REVERSES AT OAKLAND

RESTIGOUCHE AND DANDELION FAIL AND BRING WOE TO CONFIDENT BACKERS.

Cowen and Electrowan the Only Winning Favorites -Scoville to Ride in the East for

M. Hirsch.

San Francisco, Cal., April 13.-Guy Burns, the rough-riding Hildreth jockey, is being paid back in his own coin these days. In has capacity as stable rider he was entrusted with the mounts on the two best horses engaged in the races at Oakland today. Restigouche and Dandellon, and sustained aggravatingly unlucky defeats on both, principally because of the animosity of the other jockeys, several of whom went out of their own way to foul him. The local plunging contingent dropped many dollars over the failure of the prohibitive-priced Hildreth cracks. Tom Shaw, C. R. Ellison and S. C. Hildreth lost most.

After the last race the stewards announced that Guy Burns and E. Sullivan had been granted permis-sion to accept outside mounts in future. For a brief period the riding of these boys had been confined exclusively to starters from the Hildreth and Ramsey stables. Burns and Sullivan were recently sus-pended for alleged foul and crooked saddle work respectively.

Scoville is a jockey who has just left under a cloud. On April 10 he rode Booger Red in the poorest race that remarkably consistent race horse has run this season. The gypsy jockey will ride in the east for M. Hirsch, At W. B. Jennings' solicitation Scoville, recently suspended for alleged fraudulent riding, was reinstated to ride for the Maryland horseman. Cowen's victory in the fourth race under a capable ride by Gloss was one of the pleasing incidents of the afteroon's sport. Cowen and Electrowan were the successful winning favorites, the remainder of the card going to outsiders in the betting.

E. R. BRADLEY'S 1909 STABLE READY.

Lexington, Ky., April 13.—The names of all the horses now being trained by W. J. Hurley for E. R. Bradley at Idle Hour Farm for the 1900 campaign begin with the letter B. The older horses are Bad News, Black Mary, Better Days and Bello. The two-year-olds, four in number, are Billiard Ball. ch. c. by Jean Bereaud—Miss Jordan, by Sir Dixon: Bonnie Brick, ch. f. by Cactus II.—Plecola (dam of Bucket Brigade), by Fonso: Bougainvillaea, ch. f. Bucket Brigade), by Fonso; Bougainvillaea, ch. 1. by Gold Heels—Sister Annette, by Hindoo, and Broken Ties, ch. c, by Lamplighter—Rose Mary Kane, by Mirthful. Billiard Ball and Broken Ties are the first foals of their dams, both of which were speedy mares. Bougainvillaea is the second foal of Sister Annette, her first being Clear Rock, by Rensselaer, now a three-year-old and still a maiden. In the naming of Broken Ties there is an expression of feeling for a departed friend. Rose Mary Kane was named for the daughter of the late Hugh Kane of Texas, who was one of Mr. Bradley's closest friends. These horses are all doing well. They will be brought to the local track from the farm in a day or two and will race at the Lexington spring meeting, then will race at the Lexington spring meeting, then at Louisville and then at the New York meetings. The other horses in training at the farm are J. L. McGinnis' three—Frank Gill, Spellbound and the o year-old bay filly, Inspired, by Lamplighter, out Inspiration—in charge of trainer Smith. It has been decided just when they will be shipped York, probably about the middle of May. Frank Gill served a few mares at the farm this spring. He looks decidedly better than he did when he came to Kentucky last fall and will go back to the east ready for racing and, trainer Smith expects, additional laurels. Incidentally, in a re issue of a London racing paper, it is reported Ravello II., the dam of Frank Gill, was again mated with Collar this year. She was bought out of the W. Harry Brown dispersal sale here last fall by Harry Payne Whitney for $1,600 and sent to England during the winter. Her yearling colt, by Garry Hermann, is now owned by Mr. McGinnis and is here and is a very likely looking youngster.

HIMALAYA DEFEATS FIRST PREMIUM.

San Antonio, Tex., April 13.—The racing today was high class, with ideal track and weather conditions serving to bring out a large crowd

The feature of the afternoon's program was the at five and one-half furlongs, which brought together First Premium, Fernando, Park Row, Night Mist and Himalaya. The latter was returned the winner after a keen struggle, due mainly to the powerful finish of jockey Singleton. This boy has been riding in great form and his skillful riding of two-year-olds has called forth favorable comment. He rode two winners today.

Six bookmakers drew in today and speculation was fairly good on all races, Favorites were suc-cessful in a majority of the races and the finishes close and exciting.

Starter Duke has given Molesworth a week on the ground for his over-eagerness to get away. Hanover also drew ten days for the same offense. The stable of S. A. Clopton, numbering twelve horses, and accompanied by jockey Aubuchon, is among the latest arrivals from Los Angeles.

Horsemen continue to arrive from all points, and here are now over 400 horses quartered on the never brighter.

RIALTO DEFEATS GLORIO IN A HOT FINISH.

Homecrest Too Fast for Friend Harry-Favorites Fare Poorly at Santa Anita.

Los Angeles, Cal., April 13.-The Sain Handicap. the feature race of today's card, brought out one of the best fields of sprinters of the meeting. It was at six and a half furlongs and nine faced the barrier. Rialto, on the strength of his last previous race, was made a mild favorite and rewarded the confidence placed in him by his numerous backers by running to his best form. Off striding, he set a tremendous pace throughout and tiptoed his opponents all the way and had enough left to withstand Glorio's splendid closing challenge, winning by a narrow margin from Fern L., which finished an indifferent third.

A strong tip was circulated on Friend Harry in the sixth race at six and a half furlongs, but the favorite, Homecrest, proved too much for him, beat-ing him handily after setting the pace all the way, Homecrest threatened to loaf when an eighth out. but after a little shaking up came away with a rush holding Friend Harry safe all of the final sixteenth. TRAINER RALPH BLACK IS DEAD

Ralph Black, well known to racing, died at oshead Bay Sunday

Mr. Black was identified particularly with the steeplechase side of the sport and trained many horses that gained distinction across country for J. M. Croshy and later the late R. C. Hooner of Boswho raced in the name of Mr. Chamblet.

Black years ago owned a sales stable in Bos ton, his specialty being hunters, and many a good one he sold to members of the Brookline Country Club. He drifted naturally into the training of steeplechasers and was a familiar figure about all eastern tracks for the past dozen years.

ANOTHER AGNEW FAD SUSTAINED.

PASSING OF A GREAT RIDER.

Some Features of the Successful Career of the Lat-William Hayward.

When William Hayward joined his ancestors When William Hayward joined his ancestors a few days ago, a man passed away that at one time was deemed incontestibly the best jockey of the United States. He was not "Old Bill". Hayward then, but was a shender, thin-visaged young fellow of good intelligence and a master in the saddle. Hayward was English born and acquired his education in horsemanship in the stable of the famous old-time trainer, Mat Dawson. It was from there that M. H. Sanford secured him and howeth him. old-time trainer, Mat Dawson. It was from there that M. H. Sanford secured him and brought him to this country to ride such grand racers as Preakness and Monarchist. English jockeys were fashionable with our owners then, and besides Hayward, such able riders as George Barbee, "Cottontop" Hughes and "Polly" Feakes came over and enjoyed much popularity with patrons of racing in the late sixties and through the 'seventies. But among them all natives and forcingus Hayward was best them all, natives and foreigners, Hayward was best and his supremacy was not threatened until Jimmy McLaughlin, Snapper Garrison and Isaac Murphy developed. Even then, and practically to the end developed. Even then, and practically to the end of his riding days, he was a formidable antagonist to the best of the new school of riders.

Mr. Sanford, a remarkable man in many ways, was Hayward's employer for from eight to ten years and subsequently he rode for the senior August Belment, Pierre Lorillard and owners of lesser note, carrying off the Futurity of 1892 on Morello when that great colt won for Frank Van Ness, In all his relations he was regarded with respect and college. his relations he was regarded with respect and con fidence and, while somewhat reserved, was popular with his fellow riders. He brought up his son, william, Jr., in his calling, but he lacked the skill of his father and gained more success as a trainer for Stephen and John Sanford, of Amsterdam, N. Y. Of late years Hayward led a quiet life as a respected farmer in New Jersey and was the possessor of a

BASHFORD MANOR YOUNGSTERS NAMED.

Lexington, Ky., April 13.—George J. Long, of the Bashford Manor Stud, near Louisville, has this year given all of the two-year-old get of Alvescot names beginning with the letter D. In so doing, he is following out a plan, inaugurated with the coming of the first crop of foals by the imported son of Readyna and Alberta in 1904, for the ready do coming of the first crop of foals by the imported son of Raeburn and Alberta in 1904, for the ready determination of the ages of his horses. All of Alvescot's get in 1904 had names beginning with the letter A. The following year he used the letter B. the next the letter C and now the 1907 lot are coming to the races with D names, as follows: Davora, ch. f., dam Sevilla, by Alarm. Don Antonio is the first foal of Variora, a winner, and half-sister to the good campaigner, Right and True. It will be noted that the color of these two-year-olds, with the exception of Donier, is chestnut, the color of their sire Singularly enough they are all out of bay mares with the exception of Dayora and Divisor. These two-year-olds are in training at Clurchill Downs and there are some good reports about them.

TO EXPEDITE KENTUCKY APPEAL CASE.

Cincinnati, O., April 13.—Steps have been taken to hasten final adjudication by the Kentucky Court of Appeals in the test case to determine the status of the Latonia Jockey Club, the result of which, it is expected, will be a decision by that body prior to the opening day of the Latonia spring meeting. AMERICAN TRAINERS AND RIDERS ABROAD

New York, April 13 .- Jockey Shaw writes from New York, April 13.—Jockey Snaw Writes from Berlin that trainer James H. Shaw, having ridden for several seasons on the German courses, is familiar with the horses now in McCormick's hands, and will be of great heip to his employer.

When it became known that Dugan would return from England to this country, Walter Miller sent word to trainer A. J. Joyner that he was open for an engagement. Joyner did not express himself as satisfied with the applicant. He lost no time in turning the offer down.

A. J. Joyner writes from Newmarket that the weather there was particularly cold and severe for the early training and the horses did not shed their coats until much later than usual in this country. All his string are well, and he is looking forward to some successes after a while if all goes well.

RAIN IMPROVES THE TRACK

JACKSONVILLE'S PECULIAR SANDY GOING MADE BETTER FOR THE HORSES.

Earl's Court Continues His Winning Way-Momentum's Victory Brings Disaster—Halifax Wins in a Canter.

Jacksonville, Fla., April 13 .- The heavy showers which set in after the races last night and continued on and off up to the running of the opening race this afternoon, helped rather than hurt the going at Moncreif Park and for the first time during the meeting, the sound of the horses' hoofs could be heard as they passed the stand. The track is composed of white beach sand which packs when well watered and the rain was just what it needed.

Favorites won three of the races, the successful choices being Earl's Court, Water Lake and Momentum. Earl's Court's victory was his second in succession and it seems that John Mayberry has at last succeeded in solving the secret of how to train this well-bred son of Kingston. In today's race Earl's which set in after the races last night and continued

Momentum's victory was not one of Joy to his owner, J. L. Adams, for he was forced to stand a "boost" to retain his horse and then was further humiliated when an order came from the judges that in future entries made by W. C. Capps, the trainer of Momentum, be refused. In his previous race Momentum showed a poor performance and was beaten off by some ordinary horses. Today he had speed galore and won under restraint.

There were several accidents during the afternoon, but, fortunately, none of a serious nature. In the opening race Melino was jumped on and badly cut down on the off foreleg. The mishap will lay this horse on the shelf for some time. In the handicap David Dunlop's useful sprinter, Youthful, bled so badly that he had to be pulled up. Much opposition was removed in the handicap when part of the tackle on the saddle which Sally Preston carried broke. The mishap occurred directly after the start and probably accounted for the mare dropping out of contention. Halifax showed keen speed at all stages of the trip and won in a canter. EQUINE NECROLOGY LIST OF 1909.

Although only three months of the current year have passed, the death toll among thoroughbred race horses has been heavy. Since the first of January thirty horses, some of which had already earned fame in the turf world, while others were just beginning their careers, met death in one form or another. Sir Dixon, one of the most famous thoroughbred sires in this country, is included among that number. This successful stallion fell and broke his right hip while romping in the paddock at Colonel E. F. Clay's Runnymede Stud in Kentucky, on the afternoon of March 23, and was immediately destroyed. P. T. Chinn was another Kentucky horseman to suffer a severe loss, when his crack two-year-old, A. J. Small, which had already given signs of exceptional promise, met with an given signs of exceptional promise, met with an untimely death during the running of the Undine Stakes at Oukland. ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

E. C., Cincinnati, O. The bet lost.

J. C., Baltimore, Md. The wager on Smiley Cor-bett lost.

B. A. M., Clyde, Ill. The prices were correct as published.

W. C. D., Chicago. Gossiper II. has not be longed to the Keenes.

G. E. F., Chicago. No. Parlays are confined to the horses named in the bet.

J. K., Louisville, Ky. The time is the same Your informants are mistaken.

A. W., Detroit, Mich. The last year of racing and track bookmaking at St. Louis was 1905. G. W., Cincinnati, O. Parlays are decided strictly by the running of the borses named in the bet. 1t

C. B., Kansas City, Mo. Cannot undertake to do such business. We are publishing a newspaper only.

J. I.. Chicago. Of course it is an unfair rule, but if you bet subject to it you have to stand results. II H. C., St. Louis, Mo. The sum due your friend was $3.60 or $3.65 from all of the transac-

F. B. N., New York. All are mile tracks of the ordinary elliptical shape except in the case of Santa Anita, which has chutes.

Herman W., Detroit, Mich. There was racing and bookmaking at the various St. Louis tracks in 1904. Also up to a certain period in 1905.

J. P. W., St. Louis, Mo. The winners of the Latonia Derby for the last three years were: 1906, Sir Huon; 1907, The Abbot; 1908, Pinkola.

Wm. T., Cincinnati, O. The bet on Spohn won and should be paid. The bookmaker was taking his chances on the entries as they stood and has no reason for refusing to settle.

G. K., Kansas City, Mo. (1) No such sum was offered at Harlem at any time. (2) Weights are according to the scale of weights with such variations as may result from selling races and handi-

E. B.. Cincinnati, O. It is for the bookmaker to say whether added starters run for his book or not. and, to make it binding on his patrons, it is his duty to notify them of the fact in advance. Then, if they bet with him, they know what to expect. There is no equity in the rule, however, and such bets should be paid.

E. M. M., Memphis, Tenn. Sandpiper is a three-year-old gelding, by Hamburg—Kildeer, San-piper is a four-year-old colt, by Yankee Doodle— Nac Nic. They belong to different owners. It was the latter horse that ran in race 80886 and you wagers on him as Sanpiper were void. The parlay won as a single bet on Guy Fisher.

The figures under "Rec." in above entries show the best time made by the horse at the distance, with weight carried, since January 1, 1906. This time is not necessarily made by a winner. It may be the estimated time of a losing performance.

LATEST PERFORMANCES OF HORSES ENTERED TODAY.

The small figure under "Str." shows the distance the horse was ahead of that next in the race. The small figure under "Fin."—unless the horse won—shows the number of lengths the horse was behind the winner.

BETTING ON NEW YORK TRACKS.

System Will Be Radically Different from Former Free-for-All Bookmaking.

There will be no bookmaking on the New York tracks, but from present indications there will be little or no interference with individual speculation. When several important points have been settled by the courts—and some decisions are looked for soon-it is believed that the county authorities will be much better informed as to the requirements of the Hart-Agnew law than they were last year. The popularity of racing, therefore, depends almost wholly upon the ability of the public to bet on the borses without fear of arrest, and if there is con-paratively plain sailing it is predicted that the metropolitan tracks will soon be able to get on their

"In spite of the way the new law was enforced last year," said a race track lawyer yesterday, 'is every reason to believe that mistakes were which cannot be repeated. I do not believe that the former persecution of race track regulars will be at-tempted again. Of all the alleged violators of the law who were arrested, searched, indicted and re-leased on bail in this state last season, not one has been convicted, and I am reliably informed few will ever be brought to trial, because of a general lack of evidence. The fact that various court rulings have shown that it is legal to make oral ritings have shown that it is legal to make oral wagers, to accept them without limit, to display odds and sell advance information, and that for a man to make a private memorandum of his own wager is not an infraction of the law, cannot be ignored by the county authorities unless, in some cases, they are prompted by other motives. The Hart-Agnew law prohibits bookmaking, which has been defined as 'the act of accepting and recording wagers as a business.' Just as long as men who accept wagers do not record them there is no way in which they can be convicted of bookmaking, and for that reason there can be no further trouble. The for that reason there can be no further trouble. The law does not apply to the actions of the bettor and lation here will simply have to undergo a complete change. Bookmaking is dead and can never be re vived. But individual betting, at present in its in fancy, will soon become so well understood by the public that the sport will regain all of its old popularity. It is just a question of time. That is all. Race-goers will be asked to conform with new conditions which will be declared legal, and under them racing will be cleaner and better than ever before. Governor Hughes' crusade was directed against open gambling in which thousands of persons of all law does not apply to the actions of the bettor and when it comes down to cases you'll find that the bettor can record his own transactions and in that way business at the track can be pretty safely controlled. Emiment legal authorities say that a law interfering with the rights of an individual would be unconstitutional and that the legislature would never attempt to pass such a measure.
